

Portal Navigation

Getting Started

- Log into www.lumenisslt.com
- New users should register online by clicking on the suitable link at the bottom of the page

Landing page provides the latest updated files, discussions, news and events

Click “INFORMATION CENTER” on the navigation panel to begin

- Select the relevant ocular pathology to learn more about the corresponding Lumenis product and application offerings, marketing resources and multi-media materials. Selection can be made by simply clicking on the button on the navigation panel or the blue box on the far right side of the screen.

The “GLAUCOMA” and “RETINA” pathologies are segmented into two - “Clinical Education” and “Customer Relations”

- “Clinical Education” contains access to eSeminars, Patient Video, Protocols, Reimbursement, Symposia, Testimonials, and White Papers
- “Customer Relations” contains access to Advertisements, Brochures, Journal/Periodical Articles, Operator Manuals and our Partners

“MARKETING RESOURCES” is segmented into two - “Marketing Materials” and “My Account”

- You can view, download to-print, customize (where applicable) and place on-line orders from the Lumenis Marketing Resource Center.
- Under the Selecta II icon you will find: the patient brochure, sample patient letter, sample patient seminar letter, sample referring letter, frequently asked questions, media fact sheet, sample press release, patient seminar presentation, patient testimonial template, practice management guide, sample radio ads.
- Under the SLT icon you will find: the Doughnut Hole poster, patient questionnaire template, glaucoma therapy brochure, and the Patient Education Video in CD and DVD formats

Access the “DISCUSSION FORUM” by clicking on a pathology. You can view topics, respond to topics, create new topics (upper left corner button) and or “Subscribe to Forum” (bottom right corner button) to obtain emails on all new threads/posts.

“MULTIMEDIA RESOURCES” contains links to podcasts, the Lumenis Vision website, the Glaucoma SLT website, the SLT Physician Locator, and to our partners.

- If your facility is not registered with the physician locator, follow the links to register
- Mention Lumenis Vision as a reference to obtain a discount on partner products
